

MANCHESTER COMMUNITY BAND

Want to Play?

Manchester Community Band is Currently Recruiting Members for our 2016 Summer Concerts!

Manchester Community Band welcomes musicians of all skill levels, 2016-17 high school junior (minimum) through senior adults. Now beginning its fourth season, the band has over 100 members from Manchester, the greater St. Louis area and beyond. There is no audition required — just an enthusiasm to join in the music. Anyone interested in playing in the Community Band should email manchestercommunityband@gmail.com for further information. All concert band instruments are welcome!

Clarinets, double reeds, trumpets, euphoniums and tubas are especially needed.

Artistic Director and Conductor, Chris Becker

Mr. Becker is currently Director of Bands at Parkway South High School and Washington University. He has directed bands in the Parkway School District for 35 years.

Assistant Artistic Director, Jeremy Knudtson

Mr. Knudtson is a band director in the Rockwood School District and, as a tubist, performs and teaches privately throughout the St. Louis area. He also is coordinator of the annual highly popular "TubaChristmas".
