

Manchester Arts Presents

GLOBAL CULTURES

Exhibition curated by: Dion Dion and Freida L Wheaton

WHEN May 14 – July 4, 2016
Opening Reception: Friday, May 13, 6-8 p.m.

WHERE Courtroom Gallery at Manchester Police Facility
2nd floor, 200 Highlands Blvd. Dr., Manchester MO 63011
Daily exhibit hours are 9 a.m. – 8 p.m. (seven days/wk)

The Manchester Arts' Global Cultures exhibit reaches out to artists expressing their creativity from unique cultural viewpoints. Global Cultures recognizes that these voices from different cultures are making a valued contribution to our community's and the nation's artistic dialogue.

The exhibition was curated by Dion Dion, Visual Arts Chair, Manchester Arts Board of Directors and Freida L. Wheaton, Director and Curator, Vaughn Cultural Center. The show features artwork from 28 St. Louis regional artists from various diverse cultural backgrounds that include: African American, Hispanic/Latino, Asian, Middle Eastern, East Indian, Eastern European, and the Philippines. The Global Cultures show presents works in a variety of media that encompass paintings, drawings, mixed media, sculpture, photography and ceramics.

Exhibiting Artists include: Najjar Abdul-Musawwir, Ken Calvert, Mario Carlos, Terrell Carter, cbabi bayoc, Nancy Exharu, Naxin Fan, Angela Hung, Linda Damece Jones, Grace Lin, Luz López de Lemus, Jimmy Liu, Chan Mahanta, Sukanya Mani, Maria Ojascastro, Noemi Oyarzabal, Adrienne Patel, Nicole Petrescu, Marilyn L. Robinson, Fabio Rodriguez, Tsila Schwartz, Thomas Sleet, Gabriela Toujas, René Michel Trapaga, Joy Wade, Adrian Wright, James Wu, and Yingxue Zho.

